AN UNUSUAL MAY STORM.
It Terrified Persons in All Sections of the City.
The rain and thunder storm yesterday did much damage throughout the city.
The lightning struck a large shade tree on Mulberry street near the Trinity office, and several times came dangerously close to the houses in that vicinity.
Street car traffic was impeded for a short time owing to the incessant flashes of lightning.
The effect of the storm was felt less in the Providence section of the city, but the furious wind and hail damaged many shade and fruit trees, and garden beds. On the West Side the wind tore a large piece of tin roofing from the building occupied by George Walters as a jewelry store on South Main avenue, and a pedestrian had a narrow escape from injury when it fell. Shade and fruit trees also suffered.
On the South Side the lightning struck the trolley wire near Hickory street and glided on a feed wire to the rail. It then ran along the track more than a block, making a protection display not much related by the on-lookers.

EDWARD PRICE BURIED.
Odd Fellows Participate in Funeral from Asbury M. E. Church.
The funeral of the late Edward Price was held Saturday from the Asbury Methodist Episcopal church, Green Ridge. Rev. Geo. M. Peck was assisted in conducting the services by Rev. A. T. Chaffee, pastor, and H. M. Horne. Interment was made in the Odd Fellows plot at Forest Hill cemetery.
Lackawanna lodge, No. 291, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, attended the service in a body, and the following members of the lodge were pall-bearers: F. C. Frederic, Israel Ruth, Anthony Long, J. F. Coslett, William P. Phillips and John Davis.

Scranton's Business Interests.
The Tribune will soon publish a carefully compiled and classified list of the leading wholesale, banking, manufacturing and professional interests of Scranton and vicinity. The edition will be bound in book form, beautifully illustrated with photographs of our public buildings, business blocks, streets, etc., together with portraits of leading citizens. No similar work has ever given an equal representation of Scranton's many industries. It will be an invaluable exposition of our business resources. Sent to persons outside the city, copies of this handsome work will attract new comers and be an unequalled advertisement of the city. The circulation is on a plan that cannot fail of good results to those concerned as well as the city at large. Representatives of The Tribune will call upon those whose names are desired in this edition and explain its nature more fully.
Those desiring views of their residences in this edition will please have notice at the office.

Don't Miss It.
Shoes at manufacturer's prices today. Factory Shoe Store, 411 Lacka's ave.
Dr. Gibson, of New York city, will be in his Scranton office, 44 Wyoming avenue, every Monday from 8 in the morning until 9 in the evening.

NEWS OF WEST SIDE
Happenings of a Day That Will Interest Hyde Park Readers.
WEDDED SATURDAY EVENING
Simon Jones and Miss Edith Davies United in Matrimony at the Home of the Groom's Father—Exciting Runaway on Jackson Street—Funeral of Mrs. McKnight—Improvements on the West Side—Shorter News Notes.

(The West Side office of the SCRANTON TRIBUNE is located at 1040 Jackson street, where subscriptions, advertisements and communications will receive prompt attention.)
A pretty wedding was solemnized at 8 o'clock Saturday evening at the home of Timothy Jones, of Morris court. The contracting parties were Simon Jones and Miss Edith Davies. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. S. Jones, pastor of the First Welsh Baptist church. In the presence of a large number of friends and relatives of the young people. The house was tastefully decorated. After the ceremony supper was served. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Henry Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas S. Davies, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Ackerson, Ruth, Maggie and Armit Jones, Evan Hill and Charles Hill, of Dunmore, John Jones, Seth Jones, William Gleason, David Hill, Joseph Prosser and Thomas Gleason.

An Exciting Runaway.
A team of horses belonging to Henry Walker, the harnesser, of Jackson street and Morris court, attached to a light wagon, ran away on Saturday. The team was standing on Garfield avenue between Jackson and Lafayette streets. The driver was about to step into the wagon after delivering his goods when the horses suddenly started at a rapid rate. The animals, kept by the reins, came along Price street to Van Buren avenue, at which place they came in contact with an electric pole. The wagon was completely demolished.

Mrs. McKnight Buried.
A large number of friends attended the funeral of Mrs. Eliza McKnight, wife of George McKnight, of Hyde Park avenue, plumber, on Saturday. Brief services were conducted at the home on Ninth street, after which the remains were removed to the Washington Street Presbyterian church, where impressive services were held. Rev. D. W. Skellenger presided the funeral sermon and a choir sang appropriate selections. Among the many handsome floral tributes were a pillow inscribed "Mother" and a wreath bearing the inscription "Our Friend." The pall-bearers were E. C. Post, E. G. Doyle, John Wilking and William Wickett.

West Side Improvements.
City Engineer Joseph P. Phillips and a corps of workmen have taken for a culvert over Keyser Valley creek at Jackson street on Saturday. The culvert will be a great improvement to that section. Preparations are being made for the grading of Jackson street from Sherman avenue to avenue A, and will be started at once. A sewer will also be constructed through which the water from the land of the Lackawanna Iron and Steel company will drain. A gang of men will be placed at work on the culvert this morning.

Hook and Ladder Exhibition.
A large number of people gathered on West Lackawanna avenue Saturday evening to witness the drill by the Hook and Ladder company. The ladders were extended to the building near by the Maloney oil company and the evolutions of exhibit given by the members in mid air were most creditable.

Shorter News Notes.
Owen D. Johns will assume his duties as alderman of the Fourth ward today.
Mr. Henry Williams, of Wilkes-Barre, is the guest of friends on this side.
The Hyde Park Literary and Debating society will hold a meeting this evening in its rooms on South Main avenue.
Mr. and Mrs. Ebenzer Davies, of Eyrone, are in Philadelphia.
W. A. Price, a former resident of this side, who recently moved to Forest City, has returned.
Rev. D. P. Jones, pastor of the Tabernacle Congregational church, preached at Jermya yesterday.
Controller William R. Williams is improving his property on South Main avenue.
S. D. Pettit, of New York city, is visiting his mother on North Rebecca avenue.
E. R. Griffiths, who is at present manager of a store at Mount Carmel, is spending a few days with his family on Price street. He will return on Wednesday.
The Epworth league of the Simpson Methodist Episcopal church will give an old folks concert and a maple sugar social in the church parlors on Thursday evening.

LARGE BATCH OF EVIL-DOERS.
They Were in Police Court Charged With Many Offenses.
Fourteen evil-doers were brought before Mayor Connell for examination in police court yesterday. Their offenses included nearly all the minor charges the police have to do with, and three were accused of beating their mothers.
Harry and Samuel Newton, Englishmen, aged 33 and 19 years respectively, were arrested on Wells street, North End, at a late hour Saturday night by Officers Coslett and Joiner. Both were drunk, and the former had been beating his mother. Mayor Connell does not brook wife and mother beating and made no exception in this case of the lectures for which he is noted at times. Harry will spend thirty days in jail, but the younger brother, Samuel, was thought to have been unduly influenced and was discharged.
Jeremiah Hennessey, aged 33 years, of Park Hill, who has always been a sober man, became overburdened with intoxicants early yesterday morning and when he found his way into his sister's house at 2:30 o'clock amused himself and terrified his sister by breaking crockery and shying tinware through a window. The mayor thought him a victim of circumstances and discharged him.
Patrick Mahar, aged 19 years, was the second mother-beater to incur the wrath of his honor. He came beastly intoxicated to his home in Pine Brook shortly after midnight Saturday and demanded money of his mother. He caused her had none he floored her with a brutal blow and kicked her. He received a lecture which may do him good and a sentence to spend thirty days in jail.

Maggie O'Rourke and Maggie Montgomery, the latter with a nursing home in her arms, were charged with general disorderly conduct, drunkenness and fighting. Both have gone through the police mill many times. James Tierney and Mrs. Montgomery's husband were arraigned on the same charge as the women. None of the quartette have a residence or an occupation. Mrs. O'Rourke was sent to jail for thirty days; the men were given each fifteen days, and Montgomery was remanded until some disposition can be made of her baby.
A number of others were arraigned, most of them charged with being drunk and disorderly.

COMING ATTRACTIONS.
A small menagerie is utilized by David Hopper on his present traveling tour, the members of which appear at every performance of "Panjandrum," the brilliant melange which will be presented at the Academy of Music tomorrow night.
The comedian's zoological pets comprise two Spanish ponies, two snow white Andalusian mules, several monkeys, twelve white oxen, five of which appear at each performance, making their appearance from a dove cot, and after a series of circles in mid-air, alight on the head and shoulders of pretty Dolla Fox, and the other seven being held in reserve as understudies, and a valuable otter hound, which has been given the rather odd title of "Sloppy Weather."
Perhaps the greatest pet in the collection is a small Burmese monkey, which has been given the name of Christopher Columbus. "Chris" is very intelligent and at times displays unusual sagacity. He is very much attached to the general comedian, and among his warmest friends in the company is big Jim Flynn, the master carpenter of the organization, and Mrs. Lita Schrader the matron-in-costumes.
NEW WUNDERLAND.
"Our Boys," which is described as a rollicking, racy play, brimful of fun from start to finish, and the most successful comedy ever written (having had a continuous run of over 1,500 nights when first produced in London, England) will be presented Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. During the remainder of the season admission to all parts of the house, afterwards only, will be 10 cents; evenings, admission as heretofore, 10, 20 and 30 cents.

DUNMORE.
The Memorial Day committee are busily engaged in perfecting arrangements for an appropriate observance of that day. Their first meeting was held last Friday night and preliminary business was transacted. There will be a meeting every Friday evening until the programme is fully completed. It has been decided to hold a parade and have the usual memorial services at the Dunmore and St. Mary's cemetery. The school children will be in line in charge of their respective teachers.
Arthur Closs is seriously ill at his home.
Henry Bayea is attending United States court at Pittsburg, serving on the grand jury.
Tyler Connally is confined to his home with a badly injured foot which he received by jumping from a large ladder at the brick works where he is superintendent.
Improvements are being made around the Potter homestead.
A rifle which was to have been held at the Odd Fellows hall on May 4 has been postponed until May 15.
Fred Russell entertained a number of friends at his home on Bixley street last evening.
The Electric Hose company have elected the following officers to serve during the ensuing year: President, Albert Buttermann; vice president, Jacob Buttermann; secretary, James Mackie; financial secretary, Albert Brunt; trustees, P. H. Wagner, James McDonald and George Richter; treasurer, August Washers; foreman, George Bankart; first assistant, Jacob Pfander; second assistant, Thomas Washers; pipeman, Philip Wagner; assistant pipeman, John Egan, Michael Meggan and Fred Washers; stemen, H. McLawley and John Lawrence.
Fred Dryer is ill at his home on Pine street.
The Fowler residence on Cherry street is being enlarged.
The few energetic members of the board of trade are endeavoring to create more interest in board affairs than has characterized it since its organization. They will shortly call the attention of the business men to this important factor of improvement. Many of the business men have not been thoroughly impressed with the importance of a board of trade and have not become members nor given the board their support. It is hoped that they will now co-operate and seek a further advancement of business interests.
The Young Ladies' Missionary society will meet at the home of Mrs. Boyd on Monroe avenue Thursday afternoon. Members who still retain work of the society are requested to return it as soon as possible.
Frank Marshall, the agent at Dunmore station, has accepted the position of foreman at No. 8 colliery of the Pennsylvania Coal company at Pittston. Victor Burschel has been installed at the depot.
Jacob Warg is spending Sunday at Match Chuk.
Mrs. A. De Orellis Blackington spent Sunday at Binghamton. She was accompanied by Miss Jennie Osborne, of Wilkes-Barre.
Mrs. James McNulty, of New York, is visiting her parents.
The following residents of this place are drawn as jurors for the term of court commencing May 28: T. F. Cawley, John Fowler, John B. Goodman, M. E. Dolphin, John Palmer, Dr. Oliver Marcey, George Taylor, Isaac Butler, Michael Glinay and P. J. Murphy.
Dr. Barry, of Wales, has written that he will attend the stated held at Lake Ariel by St. Mary's church on July 4.
No. 4 school building is to be enlarged.

NOTES OF SOUTH SIDE
The First Thunder Storm of the Year Causes Much Damage.
LIGHTNING STRIKES THE HOUSE
Of Joseph Hannick Yesterday Afternoon—Entertainment of Royal Arcanum at Germania Hall, at Which Dr. Doolittle, of Easton, Will Speak. Boys Smoking Pipes Set Fire to a House—Funeral of Mrs. David Neuls—Shorter Paragraphs.

During the thunderstorm yesterday afternoon lightning struck Joseph Hannick's fine residence on Pittston avenue, throwing the family into a very nervous state. The flash hit the ridge of the main body of the house near the rear gable and tore away the terra cotta cresting, also smashing a number of slates on the roof. The bolt then entered the attic and reduced to splinters several of the rafters. The damage is slight, not above $50. At the same time a tributary of the bolt that struck the Hannick residence entered the quarters of the William Council House company. It followed the ground wire out again and spent itself without damaging the alarm. Along the different avenues the wind was very destructive to trees and flower bushes. The severe hail broke panes of glass in many dwelling houses.

Mrs. David Neuls Laid at Rest.
Although yesterday afternoon was exceedingly stormy, the dense throngs of people that assembled at the family residence to attend the remains of Mrs. David Neuls to the grave attested the respect and esteem with which she was regarded as a neighbor and acquaintance in life. The casket was buried under a heap of very beautiful flowers, the gifts of mourning friends. The body was borne by Henry Bonn, sr., Michael Miller, Antony Wein-schenk, John Armbrecht, Philip Kirk and Charles Schuchert, L. D. Powers and John Demuth. The cortege reached the Hickory Street Presbyterian church at 2:30, where Rev. August Lange preached an eloquent and consoling sermon. The full choir of the church rendered some beautiful and appropriate hymns. Services were also held at the grave in the Buxton cemetery, and the body was lowered to mother earth.

Royal Arcanum Entertainment.
Electric City council, Royal Arcanum, lately organized on this side and composed of a large number of influential citizens, will give a free entertainment on Tuesday evening, May 15, at Germania Hall. Amusement will be furnished by local talent, which will include some of the best vocal and instrumental musicians of the city. Grand Regent E. D. Doolittle, of Easton, has been extended and has accepted an invitation to deliver an address. Dr. Doolittle is an eloquent speaker and will not fail to give his hearers. About 600 invitations will be sent out. Scranton council, No. 923, and Lackawanna council, No. 1133, will attend in a body. After the entertainment refreshments will be served.

John Matthias' House on Fire.
The one-story frame building on Hamm court between Elm and Locust streets owned by John Matthias, which was gutted by fire a month ago, caught fire again on Saturday morning and was almost entirely consumed. Some small boys, it is claimed, were playing in the basement, and incidentally were smoking tobacco. One of them, in lighting his pipe, dropped the match in a heap of straw and the place caught fire. An alarm was rung from box 52. The tenants and William Councils quickly responded and extinguished the flames.

Shorter Paragraphs.
Stephen Francis Gaven, 1 year, 2 months and 28 days old, son of Stephen Gaven, of Biome avenue, died Saturday morning and will be buried this afternoon at 3 o'clock in Hyde Park cemetery.
Thomas E. Donlin, of Pittston avenue, lately foreman for the Taylor & Co. lumber firm, has resigned and engaged a gang of carpenters, becoming a building contractor himself.
Miss Catherine Brown and James Thornton, of Minooka, will be married on Wednesday afternoon, May 23, in St. Joseph's church, Minooka, by Edward Walsh, aged 50 years, a minister living at 418 South Washington avenue, died Saturday morning after a short illness. The funeral will be held tomorrow morning with a requiem mass at 9:30 in St. Peter's cathedral. Interment in Hyde Park cemetery.
E. J. Kelley, of Locust street, is ill at his home.
The cellars in the lower end of the Eleventh ward were all flooded after the rain yesterday, and emphasized the need of a sewer or drain pipe for Elm street.
The plans for the other new building to be erected on the Robinson property have been accepted and a building permit granted. The work of putting up the structure will begin in a week or so.

AMATEURS PLAY BASE BALL.
Wood's College Team Defeated by a Picked Club on Saturday.
About 250 persons assembled at the Driving park on Saturday afternoon, to witness a game of base ball between Wood's College teams and a picked nine, consisting of four from the high school and six outsiders, resulting in a victory for the latter. Fuller captained the college team and Owens the picked club. It was the first game the college team had played this season. Lewis and Gibbs were the battery for Fuller's team and Owens and Littlejohn for Owens' team. The score was:
Fuller's Team.....0 4 0 5 0 3 0 2-14
Owens' Team.....1 5 4 6 1 0 2 1-23
Time of game—3 hours. Umpires—Griffith and Littlejohn.
The teams will probably play next Saturday.

ACTING POLICE OFFICERS.
Changes Incurred by Absence of Chief Simpson and Lieutenant Spellman.
In the absence of Chief of Police Simpson, who is in attendance at the United States court at Pittsburg, Captain Edwards is the acting head of the department. Lieutenant Spellman, of the Providence station, is also at Pittsburg. Officer Thomas R. Thomas will be in charge of the station during Lieutenant Spellman's absence.
The three newly appointed officers, Ferry, Sloan and Jones, are expected to assume their duties tonight when they will be assigned to beats in the central city.

LIVE JOTTINGS OF POLITICS.
The exact language used by Billy Hines in saying his mind toward Postmaster General Bissell was as follows: "I shall not go near the old duffer again. He does not know how to treat the Democratic members. Take my case for instance. He boasts that I will not come within 45,000 miles of a reelection. Is not that a nice way for a Democratic member of the cabinet to talk about a Democratic member of congress?"
The Prohibition state convention will be held in Williamsport on June 6. Lawyer H. T. Ames, of that town, who once said he would rather reside at a Prohibition convention than be president of the United States, is talked of for the gubernatorial candidate. He ran for supreme court judge last fall.
Secretary Feteroff of the Republican state committee, writes THE TRIBUNE that the demand for accessory positions at a state convention was never larger than it is for May 23. Those who expect to go to Harrisburg on that date but have not made arrangements for lodgings are advised to lose no time in securing the ear of a grasping landlord.
Editor Brown, of the Bloomsburg Republican, would not run away from a congressional nomination in Mr. Wolverton's district.
McKeen county Republicans lost the services of an experienced and well known legislator when they defeated Representative Lydick for re-nomination. His many friends in this vicinity will regret to learn of his defeat.
According to the Pittston Gazette, the candidate of George S. Ferris for orphan's court judge in Luzerne is proceeding with the greatest prospect of being successful at the convention.

Major McDowell professes to be entirely willing to return to his private banking and business interests in Sharon, provided the people prefer Mr. Hoff to him. He adds: "A congressman is a mere clerk for his constituents and is kept busy trying to serve them. I have found that out." What he objects to is being "thrown down," as the slang phrase goes.
The latest table gives Walter Leon, 129 delegates, John B. Robinson, 50, and Thomas J. Stewart, 24. It will require 108 delegates to nominate either of the two delegates are present in person or by proxy. This table, needless to say, is a Loyal table, although not necessarily a loyal one.
MacLery Wilhelm has about decided to buck against Jack Coyte for the senatorial nomination in the Thirtieth senatorial district.
These are the announced candidates for Collector Grant Herrig's out-of-district seat in the Twenty-fourth district: composed of Lycoming, Columbia, Sullivan and Montour. Dr. George K. Wood, of Albany; J. Henry Cochran, of Williamsport; Dr. Hoffa and Representative Garfinger, of Montour; and M. J. Lutz, of Sullivan. Cochran has the call.
